

Terms & Conditions

Please note that all transactions are non-refundable, but if you are unable to attend an event, you may send someone else in your place. In that case, simply let us know the name and contact info for the guest that will be attending.

If the event is canceled, guests may choose to receive either a full credit towards another Robb Report experience for use until December 31, 2021 or receive a refund in full.

COVID-19: If the event has not been canceled but a guest is unable to attend due to COVID-19, inclusive of having the disease, having been exposed, and relevant travel restrictions, the guest must give Robb Report written notice to carolineb@robbreport.com at least 30 days in advance of the start of the event to receive a full refund. If a guest must cancel due to COVID-19 within 30 days of their session, then a full credit will be issued to use towards any Robb Report experience through December 31, 2021. Any such credits are non-transferable, revocable, and cannot be sold or exchanged for cash. Robb Report is not responsible for additional costs incurred as a result of cancellation outside of the ticket fee, such as flight changes, or other cancellation fees. You may wish to purchase travel insurance. Please speak with your personal insurance broker for coverage options. If you know yourself to have been exposed to COVID or if you become ill in the days preceding the event, we kindly ask you to let us know and not attend the event. Temperature checks will be administered throughout the event to ensure guest safety and we expect all guests to comply.

Please note that in order to participate in the event, you will be required to sign Robb Report's standard Event Waiver and release along with any waivers required by third party original equipment manufacturers, such as car companies; you may also be asked to confirm that you have a certain level of automobile insurance coverage. These waivers will be provided to you ahead of your arrival and must be signed before your participation. To review a sample of an RR1 Event Waiver and Release, please click HERE. The waiver for 2020 will be adjusted slightly to apply to the specific activities designated for 2020. Note that if you cannot agree to the terms of any specific third-party waiver you may still be able to participate in the Event, with the exception of interacting with that equipment.

Should you have questions or concerns please contact Caroline Barry at carolineb@robbreport.com or 310-589-7664.
